Aurora Managed Services appoints Sean Rakauskas
as Associate Director

LONDON, 30th October 2025: Aurora Managed Services ('Aurora'), today announced the appointment of Sean Rakauskas as Associate Director.

Rakauskas is an experienced sales team leader in the managed print services sector with proven success in building partnerships nationally and nurturing sales teams to increase their performance and productivity. With a keen personal interest in digital transformation, Rakauskas has helped many clients to develop their operations through managed services that drive and support change in the way businesses operate, leveraging the benefits of digital technology. With previous experience outside workplace technology and managed services, Sean also brings a fresh outlook to meeting challenges and leading teams.

Aurora's Group Sales Director, Paul Rylands said: "Sean's work creating and developing teams and creating new business strategies makes him a great addition for Aurora Managed Services. Under his guidance our London and Home Counties teams will be a powerhouse in the industry. With experience in fields outside of managed services, he will bring a new way of thinking to the industry and Aurora."

Sean Rakauskas commented, "I am really excited to be joining Aurora at this time, their objectives for growth and appetite to invest in their expansion to become the UK's leading independent supplier for managed services is inspiring. I'm looking forward to helping strengthen our customer relationships in and around the London area, creating new business opportunities and developing a team of top notch account managers who will drive this vision further."

Ends.
